As for the Guidance, I am still working on completing the responses to Comments, and will likely be briefing Alex Dunn sometime in mid to late February so that she has something to say to BPIA in Portland on March 5. I still need TJ Wyatt to look at the economic impact comments we received from USBC/BPIA.

My guess is that this may not be done before mid to late summer, as it would seem we need to make some tweaks to the Guidance in response to some comments.

You know what that means.....

Back through OGC, OPP, OCSPP, OP, and the Regions at the very least. Maybe a re-review by USDA, also.

Good morning Yvette,

I am uncertain whom to reach out to; however, your name was suggested as a good place to start. I am trying to determine if EPA has an anticipated date to release the final Guidance for Plant Regulator Label Claims, Including Plant Biostimulants? I have attached the draft version from March 2019, for reference.

Thank you in advance,
